

Meaningful Activity Standards

No.	Standard	Examples	R A G
1	 There are lots of different ward based activities that are always available for service users to choose from.	Order and supply information. Requests of materials / community minutes. Ward timetable. Spontaneous events . Craft materials available.
2	 There is a range of current resources for entertainment for service users, which reflect the service's population.	Recent magazines. Daily newspapers. Books. Board games. TV and DVD player with DVDs. Computers with internet access . Games consoles.
3	 Vocational skills and opportunities to build skills are encouraged and promoted to service users.	Goal setting. Care planning. Placements found for volunteers. Recovery College. Information board/leaflets.
4	 Everyone has an individual meaningful activity plan based on their hobbies and interests. This looks at both quality and quantity.	Activities available at all times. MDT and CPA meetings. OT checklist. Family/ Carer Involvement. 25 hours per week monitoring. Noticeboards. Personal planners. Care plans. Risk assessments.

Meaningful Activity Standards

No.	Standard	Examples	RAG
5	 The service users meaningful activity plan links in with their goals and wishes for the future.	Record of discussion. Meaningful activity plan. Person centred Care plan with clear goals. Discussion at CPA and MDT. My Future Plan.
6	 There is a good balance between on and off ward activities (where possible).	OT timetable. S17 paperwork. Indoor games. Trips to cinema etc.
7	 Service users have at least an hours planning time each week for their meaningful activities.	Care plan. Booking activity. Feedback to MDT. S17 leave card. Diary of appointments. Key worker meeting. OT appointments. S/U planning own activities. Ward round request form.
8	 Service users help spend and monitor ward activity budgets in community meetings.	Money management sessions. Receipts. Community meeting minutes/ agenda/ action plan.

Meaningful Activity Standards

No.	Standard	Examples	RAG
9	 There are a range of activities for service users to do with their family and friends.	Visiting arrangements. Family care plan. Family play area. Risk assessment. Activities in visiting room.
10	 Activities and therapy are planned over seven days and not limited to normal working hours.	Activity timetable in place. Therapy and activity staff work a range of different hours in the service.
Total score for this area:			