

Recovery College Standards

No.	Standard	Examples	R A G
1	 There is a planning group that meets regularly and is made up of service users and staff.	Meeting minutes. Terms of Reference.
2	 There is a prospectus that shows what service users and staff want to learn about and what they want to teach.	Prospectus. Evidence of co-production. Reflects skills of service users and staff.
3	 There is information available to service users and staff about co-production, Recovery and Recovery College.	Community meetings. Notice boards. Posters.
4	 Service Users and staff have training so they feel confident to run a course.	Training. Train the trainer course.
5	 Courses are available to service users, staff and carers.	Course Prospectus. Evaluation.

Recovery College Standards

No.	Standard	Examples	R A G
6	 Information about Recovery College is provided to carers on a regular basis.	Newsletters. Minutes of carers forums. Open days.
7	 There are regular events for service users, carers and staff to raise awareness and keep people involved.	Events posters. Minutes.
8	 There are clear ways in which feedback is collected from courses and used to make them better.	Course evaluations.
9	 There are links to local community Recovery Colleges.	Planning group meeting minutes. Evidence of shared activities. Newsletters.
Total score for this area:			